5310 Applicants, Please Note:

The Obligation Certification must be signed by an authorized representative of the agency applying for the funds. Applications submitted “on behalf of” another agency will not be accepted.

This limitation is only on the submission of the application. Other agencies or consultants may prepare the application

An application submitted by one partner that represents the project partnership is permitted.

The application must be submitted electronically, via

- Your district PTC’s Drop Box: contact your PTC for the address, or
- email to the PTC for each district where you want to apply

TxDOT reserves the right to deem an application ineligible for funding if not received by 5:00 p.m. CST, March 21, 2016.

Letters of Support should be submitted with the application. Any letters sent directly to the PTC or to PTN may not be included in the application review.

TxDOT will not be responsible for locating or securing information not included in the electronic application. We recommend that applicants review the files for completeness and clarity prior to submission.
