ABOUT THE STUDY

The Fredericksburg Relief Route Study is exploring the feasibility of constructing a US 290 Relief Route which would give people the option to travel around, rather than directly through, Fredericksburg. The purpose of the Study is to determine if there is a viable and publicly-supported route option that addresses Main Street traffic concerns. To date, three public workshops have been held (May 2018, September 2018, and January 2019). Public input received in response to the workshops was used, along with engineering criteria and environmental considerations, to identify, refine, and evaluate route options. Over the last several months, the number of route options has been reduced. The five remaining Primary Route Options will be shown at the July 23rd Open House.

The Fredericksburg Relief Route Study is overseen by the Gillespie County Relief Route Task Force. Support for the Study is provided by the City of Fredericksburg, Gillespie County and the Texas Department of Transportation.

The Open House will be conducted in English. Persons interested in attending the Open House who have special communication or accommodation needs, such as the need for an interpreter, are encouraged to call 512.517.7251. Requests should be made at least two days prior to the public Open House. Every reasonable effort will be made to accommodate these needs. Official written comments will also be received and accepted by the project team via email at fredericksburgreliefroute@gmail.com or by mail to:
