Pursuant to Minute Order 110081, dated May 4, 2005, the Texas Transportation Commission (commission) approved a Master Resolution Establishing the Texas Transportation Commission Mobility Fund Revenue Financing Program, as subsequently amended by the First Amendment and Second Amendment (Master Resolution), to establish a revenue financing program (Mobility Fund Revenue Financing Program) pursuant to which the commission may issue obligations including bonds, notes and other public securities and execute credit agreements secured by and payable from a pledge of and lien on all or part of the moneys in the Texas Mobility Fund (Fund). Under such Master Resolution, the commission approved eight supplemental resolutions to the Master Resolution which authorized the issuance of eight series of Texas Transportation Commission State of Texas General Obligation Mobility Fund Bonds (i.e., Series 2005-A, Series 2005-B, Series 2006, Series 2006-A, Series 2006-B, Series 2007, Series 2008 and Taxable Series 2009A (Build America Bonds - Direct Payment)) (collectively, the "Outstanding Parity Debt"). Any capitalized terms not otherwise defined herein have the meaning given in the Ninth Supplement, as hereinafter defined.

Section 49-k, Article III of the Texas Constitution (Constitutional Provision) and Transportation Code, Chapter 201, Subchapter M, and other applicable law, including Government Code, Chapters 1207 and 1371, authorize the commission to issue bonds and other obligations secured by all or part of the money in the Fund to 1) pay all or part of the costs of constructing, reconstructing, acquiring, and expanding state highways; 2) provide participation by the State in the payment of part of the costs of constructing and providing publicly owned toll roads and other public transportation projects; 3) create debt service accounts; 4) pay interest on obligations for a period of not longer than two years; 5) refund or cancel outstanding obligations; and 6) pay the commission's costs of issuance (collectively, projects) and the Texas Department of Transportation (department) is reviewing all the Outstanding Parity Debt for refunding and cash defeasance opportunities to achieve debt service savings and create additional capacity for the issuance of new money obligations.

Transportation Code, Chapter 201, Subchapter M, provides that the commission may guarantee on behalf of the State the payment of any obligations and credit agreements secured by the fund by pledging the full faith and credit of the State to the payment of the obligations and credit agreements in the event the revenue and money dedicated to the fund and on deposit in the fund under the constitutional provision, are insufficient for that purpose.

Transportation Code, §201.947 provides that the commission may not issue obligations before the department has developed a strategic plan that outlines how the proceeds of obligations will be used and the benefit the State will derive from use of money in the fund and pursuant to Minute Order 109800, dated September 30, 2004, the Texas Mobility Fund Strategic Plan as developed by the department was adopted and has not been amended.

The commission has determined it to be in the best interest of the state and Fund to issue additional obligations, on parity with the previously issued Outstanding Parity Debt, secured by revenues and money dedicated to the Fund and on deposit in the Fund under the Constitutional Provision and by a pledge of the full faith and credit of the state for additional projects including to refund all or part of the Outstanding Parity Debt for debt service savings.

The Master Resolution, together with the "Amended and Restated Ninth Supplemental Resolution to the Master Resolution Establishing the Texas Transportation Commission Mobility Fund Revenue Financing Program" (Ninth Supplement), prescribes the terms, provisions and
