SUBJECT: Statewide Special Provision 8251--005 (04), "Reflectorized Pavement Markings with Retroreflective Requirements"

The above-referenced special provision has been approved for statewide use and is required for all projects using Item 8251, "Reflectorized Pavement Markings with Retroreflective Requirements" beginning with the June 2010 letting.

This special provision adds wording allowing the contractor to use portable reflectometers at the contractor's discretion for projects totaling less than 200,000 LF of pavement markings.

Please disseminate this information to your Transportation Planning & Development, Design, Construction, Maintenance, and Traffic Operations Engineers.
