Since Nov. 7, 2000, Texas has had at least one death on its roadways every single day.

#EndTheStreakTX
Since Nov. 7, 2000, more than 66,000 people have died on Texas roadways.

We’ve had 18 years of daily deaths on Texas roads.

The majority of all deadly crashes are due to mistakes drivers make (e.g., texting and driving and drinking and driving).

In 2017, 3 out of 10 deaths were caused by drunk driving.

Last year, 928 unbuckled people died in traffic crashes.

www.EndTheStreakTX.com